

6516206554.txt

The "regular" radio stations lost me years ago because I feel they don't have my needs in mind, at all. At least with satellite radio I have a choice in what I listen to, because I pay for it. And since I made the choice to pay for my radio programming the people that I pay should be able to provide that to me. Eliminating competition is done by being better than your competition.